

Dec. 2020 - As the holidays approach we remember holiday seasons of the past. We remember traditions and people who are forever in our hearts but who are no longer physically with us. This collage of faces and memories started in December 2017 when Pat Clark shared a page of photos of her grandson William who was born December 13th 2010. This tradition of sharing images and words about the people we are thinking of during the holidays connects us to those we miss and to each other. If you would like to have a loved one's picture appear in a future calendar, please contact Tina at info@marylonchurch.org or leave a message for her at the church 413-625-9440.

In memory of all those who left us too soon –
 We remember you in the morning, in the night when we look at the stars,
 a song, a place, a smell.
 You are always with us.

A Christmas Message from Heaven

By Steve Wentworth

As I look down from heaven
 On this special Christmas Day
 I'll try to send you little signs
 That I never went away
 I see you when you're crying
 I feel your loss and pain
 So hold onto the knowledge
 We'll be reunited once again
 Even though you miss me
 At this special time of year
 The greatest gift you'll give me
 Is your smile instead of tears
 So when Christmas starts without me
 Know we're not apart
 For every time you think of me
 I'm with you in your heart

I'm There Inside Your Heart

By Rushisurus Angel

Right now I'm in a different place,
and though we seem apart,
I'm closer than I ever was...
I'm there inside your heart.

I'm with you when you greet each day,
And while the sun shines bright,
I'm there to share the sunsets too,
I'm with you every night.

I'm with you when the times are good,
To share a laugh or two,
And if a tear should start to fall,
I'll still be there for you.

And when that day arrives
That we no longer are apart,
I'll smile and hold you close to me...
Forever in my heart.
