

photo: John Cameron, with permission, via Unsplash

Interfaith Council of Franklin County

A Three-Part Online Zoom Program

Lifting the Veil on Racism in Franklin County

Wednesday, February 24, 2021, 7 to 8:30pm

A panel of African Americans who live and work in Franklin County sharing their experiences of racism here

Thursday, March 11, 2021, 7 to 8:30pm

A panel of White people whose families include African American children, spouses, and grandchildren

Thursday, March 25, 2021, 7 to 8:30pm

A panel of Black, Brown, and White antiracist activists sharing their stories from the justice movement

Join Zoom here: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83241399041?pwd=eWFqYmNkLl dhSFY0bGgzQ2ZlVktjUT09>

Meet local speakers sharing their personal experiences as African Americans, as members of interracial families, and as antiracism activists. Share conversation with the panelists as we all explore the realities of racism and the important work of antiracism in our towns.

We encourage congregations and community groups to engage in this series together.

All are welcome. Contact interfaithcfc@gmail.com with questions.